JANUARY 2017

From the Pastor's Desk

"Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." Luke 12:32

What is in store for you in 2017? Fearful about your health, family, marriage or career? Depressed by the world situation, so much hunger, wars and the threats of wars and terrorism? Anxious about what's going on here in our country? The factionalism, unemployment and discouragement?

So many problems. So much worry. But Jesus says: "Fear not, little flock". Remember, as we begin this new year, God is at work in the world, though at times it may seem his kingdom may fail, nevertheless it shall conquer. The battle is raging, but the victory is assured. This year? Next year? In any of our lifetimes? No matter what may assail you this year, "it is the Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom."

Yes, don't forget, God's love manifested in Christ is a strong foundation for this New Year. 2017. Bring it on! God is our strength and salvation.

Peace,

Pastor Jeff Otto

The Season of Epiphany

January 6th begins the Epiphany Season of the church. That day we celebrate God's revelation to the wise men that the Messiah had been born.

Throughout this season we look at the ways, and to whom, God revealed himself through Jesus. His birth as a human, his baptism in the muddy Jordan next to common sinners, his selection of fishermen and tax collectors as his disciples, his victory over superstition and demonism, his compassionate help for the sick, and his triumph over human hatred and death, tell us a lot about God.

God accepts all kinds of people, forgives all kinds of sins, and helps us survive all kinds of threats and pain, even death.

The church is the only community that teaches that revelation of God. Only in the family of the church are people bound by their promises before God to accept each other, forgive each other, and help each other.

Of course, unchurched people can exhibit acceptance and forgiveness, and truth be told, churches don't always do this.

But we are the community commanded and committed to share the revelation of God.

Let us use this season of Epiphany to share the good news in our communities. Many may "believe in God", but they haven't yet had the opportunity to experience his acceptance, forgiveness and support in action. Let's help them to do so. How?

1. Leave this insert in your car or truck.
2. When you see a place for sale or rent, write down the address and the date.
3. When you notice it has been sold or rented, stop and welcome them to the community.
4. Also bring it to your pastor's attention soon.

Blessings,
Pastor Jeff Otto

Living Waters for the World

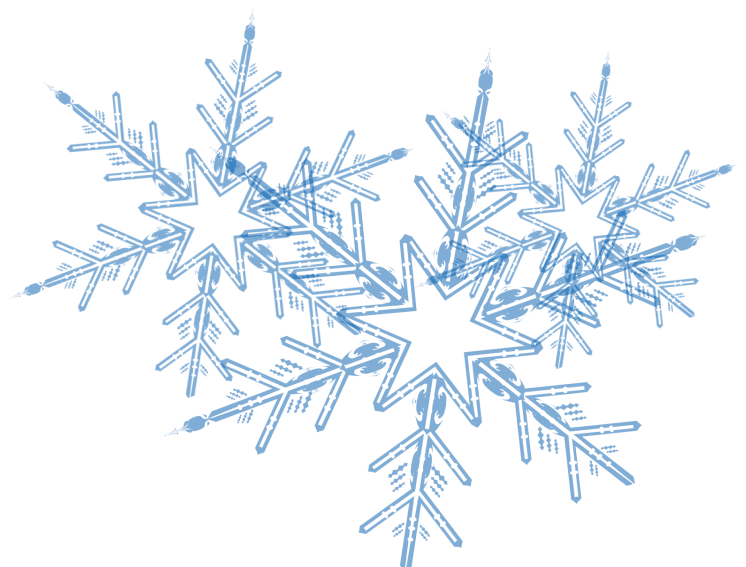

The FPC Living Waters team traveled to Guatemala in November to work with our partners Iglesia el Shaddai in Chiac, Guatemala. On November 13 Deb Thompson, Prentice Knight, Larry and Caren Gibson, and Donna Houston left bright and early (3:30 am) to catch their 7 am flight to Guatemala City. In six large boxes and one very large duffle bag they took the LWW water purification system and supplies needed for health education classes – all purchased with the generous donations of FPC and the Franklin Rotary Club.

The team was privileged to work with ICC (in country coordinator) Pablo Perez Silieazar and ICT (in country technician) Jhonny Rodriquez who acted as translators and technical support for the team. Prentice and Larry, with Jhonny's assistance and translation, helped our four system operators in Chiac install the water purification system in their beautiful water building. Even our driver – Luis – knew about the system and jumped in to help!

Caren and Donna were fortunate to have six dedicated, enthusiastic, and creative volunteers from the village. Caren and Donna, with translator and helper Pablo, taught the health education lessons every morning. The ladies (and one baby) worked every afternoon with about thirty ladies from the village to practice teaching the health lessons. They will continue to teach the lessons to groups in the community.

Deb worked countless hours before the trip, planning and communicating with our partners. She took care of our team, making sure that we had everything that we needed. Without all this work ahead of time the trip would not have been so successful. She also worked with ICD (in country director) Omar Marroquin to help the pastor and the system manager understand and carry out the business plan they developed in partnership.

On the fourth day, after all of the “parts” were put together successfully and all the lessons were taught, the team joined together with the community at the Iglesia El Shaddai water building for a celebration – a party. We prayed, sang, and toasted with the delicious water produced with the Living Water system which previously sat in our FPC Cornerstone building. A miracle? Perhaps.

As we worked, laughed, ate, and worshipped together, our team thankfully developed a warm friendship with our partners. We look forward to visiting with them again next year. We will get to see how successfully they are managing their new water system and how much healthier their community is as a result of having this clean water available. Hopefully we will also visit with another place for another installation at a future time.

The amazing part about this is that the members of Iglesia El Shaddai, Chiac, built this building – to specifications – and dug a well for their water source – on faith before they ever even met people from FPC. They built it on faith that they would find a partner and be able to provide something that was not previously available, pure, drinkable water at an affordable price for their village.

Special thanks to Linda Knight, Mickey Roark (for the use of her van), Bob Thompson, Dick Timmerman who transported us to and from the airport.

The FPC Living Waters of the World team would like to thank everyone at FPC for their continued financial support and especially the prayers that made this trip possible. Blessings to you all!

On the first Sunday of each month, we partake of the Lord's Supper together in worship. On each first Sunday, we also bring our gifts of canned goods and pantry items for the Good Samaritan food pantry. These items are placed in the red bin at the back of the sanctuary.

Thank you to all who have given over these past months and years, and thank you to all who will continue to give in the future! Let us find nourishment at God's table each month, that we may be sent out to nourish God's world.

The White Christmas Offering total for 2016 was $945.00. Thanks to your generosity, we were able to brighten the holidays for over 30 families in our community.

Also, thanks to everyone who helped pack and deliver the boxes. Your help and continued support is greatly appreciated!
