ON CALLING A PASTOR

As we begin the journey to find new pastoral leadership, the coming months will be exciting, tedious, joyful, spiritually fulfilling, frustrating, inspiring, lengthy, and purposeful. The process is one of discernment and will challenge the congregation to listen closely for the will of God for its mission and ministry in this new stage of the congregation's life.

This is a new step of faith that hopefully will bring our congregation together around the common goal of identifying who God is calling to serve our congregation.

The process, as defined by the Book of Order and our Western Kentucky Presbytery policies, involves a number of steps.

- First of all, after the pastor has resigned, Presbytery is responsible for the education of the Session about the call process.
- The Session, usually through an appointed committee, completes an MIF (Ministry Information Form) that is approved by COM (Commission on Ministry) and places online the MIF for interim pastor. This step has taken place. The Session will appoint the committee at its January meeting.
- The Session committee reviews PIFs (Pastor Information Form), makes selection, and recommends to the Session which contracts with the interim pastor.
- The interim pastor leads the congregation in a mission study.
- The congregation approves a Pastor Nominating Committee, (nominated by the nomination committee) for an installed pastor at a congregational meeting.
- The PNC takes the information from the mission study, completes an MIF that is approved by the Presbytery Committee on Ministry, and begins process of seeking an installed pastor.
- When a good candidate for pastor is found, PNC votes to request the Presbytery's Committee on Ministry to examine the candidate. After the examination, the COM votes on approval.
- The Congregation of Franklin Presbyterian is then ready to vote for an installed pastor.
- After that, the pastor will need to be approved by Presbytery and then the new pastor is installed at our church.

As Presbyterians our polity informs the process by which pastors are called to serve congregations. In our polity we are not congregational. The decision to call a pastor does not belong solely to the congregation. As Presbyterians our congregations are united in relationship of accountability and responsibility with the Presbytery as the expression of that connection.

As Presbyterians we seek to find and represent the will of Christ together. The call of a pastor is evidenced by the movement of the Holy Spirit, in the individual conscience of the Pastor or candidate in the approval of the congregation, and in the concurring judgement of the Presbytery. Together we will discern whom God is calling to serve as the pastor of FPC.

News & Announcements

CHRISTMAS JOY OFFERING TOTAL: $286.00

“For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you gave me clothes, I was in prison and you came to me.” ~

Matthew 25:35-36

The White Christmas Offering total for 2018 was $1,375. Thanks to your generosity, we were able to brighten the holidays for almost 40 families in our community.

Also, thanks to everyone who helped pack and deliver the boxes. Your help and continued support is greatly appreciated!

TACO DOMINGO!

Please plan to join us after church on Sunday, January 20th for a delicious taco lunch including: shrimp pico, pulled pork, rice, beans and all the fixin's! Please join us and learn about our new Living Waters partners at Paz y Bien in Chiquimulla, Guatemala!

benevolence Update

Thanks to the interest income from FPC's investments and generous donations from the congregation, the Pastor's Benevolence fund paid out $1,966.65 in 2018 to help people with rent, utilities, food, etc.

On the first Sunday of each month, we partake of the Lord's Supper together in worship. On each first Sunday, we also bring our gifts of canned goods and pantry items for the Good Samaritan food pantry. These items are placed in the red bin at the back of the sanctuary.

Thank you to all who have given over these past months and years, and thank you to all who will continue to give in the future! Let us find nourishment at God's table each month, that we may be sent out to nourish God's world.
